

You've always wanted to have an excuse to test your game production skills, but you've never managed to find a good one? Have you ever dreamt of having your cute experimental game played by a crowd of craving people on a quite unique game controller? With a huge screen and high power audio system? And the chance to win up to 1200€?

HAVE YOU EVER IMAGINED YOUR GAME PLAYED IN A POOL?

experimentalgameplay.com, a side project of 2d boy (World of Goo), and Tomorrow Corporation, along with O2L > Outside Standing Level and STATTMEDIA are proud to nudge you to fall in love with their proposal for a unique game design challenge.

You have time until

to get involved. Don't miss this chance. Look for details at the following URLs:
